

Faculty Lecture

Millennial Dreaming

Cultivating Hope and Ecological Vision

Presented by Dr. Timothy Van Meter

Associate Professor of Christian Education and Youth Ministry

Methodist Theological School in Ohio

Dr. Timothy Van Meter is associate professor of Christian education and youth ministry at Methodist Theological School in Ohio, where he has served on the faculty since 2006. His areas of expertise include the spiritual and vocational aspirations of youth and young adults, including youth cultures; popular culture; spiritual practices; ecology; justice and peace movements; communal movements; and alternative forms of church. He is the author of Created in Delight: Youth Ministry and the Mending of the World, published by Wipf and Stock in 2013.

Dr. Van Meter holds a B.S. from Tennessee Technological University; a Master of Divinity degree from Emory University, Candler School of Theology; and a Ph.D. from Emory University's Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Graduate Division of Religion.

The Theological Commons at MTSO is a means through which the school shares intellectual resources with the church and the world through dialogue with the broader community. By offering events, learning resources and continuing conversation, the Theological Commons promotes the sharing of knowledge and experience between students, faculty, clergy and the public for the benefit of all participants and those they serve.
