Dr. Yvonne Zimmerman is associate professor of Christian ethics at Methodist Theological School in Ohio, where she has served on the faculty since 2008. Her areas of expertise include feminist theory; gender and sexuality studies; social theory; U.S. human trafficking policy; and liberationist ethics. She is the author of Other Dreams of Freedom: Religion, Sex and Human Trafficking, published by Oxford University Press in 2012.

Dr. Zimmerman holds a B.A. from Goshen College; a Master of Theological Studies degree from Emory University, Candler School of Theology; and a Ph.D. from the University of Denver and Iliff School of Theology.

The Theological Commons at MTSO is a means through which the school shares intellectual resources with the church and the world through dialogue with the broader community. By offering events, learning resources and continuing conversation, the Theological Commons promotes the sharing of knowledge and experience between students, faculty, clergy and the public for the benefit of all participants and those they serve.
